

ALBRIGHT STONEBRIDGE GROUP

Contact:

Mary Clare Rigali

mrigali@albrightstonebridge.com

VICTORIA NULAND REJOINS ASG

April 18, 2019 (Washington, DC) – Albright Stonebridge Group (ASG), the premier global strategy and commercial diplomacy firm, announced today that Victoria Nuland has returned to ASG. As ASG Senior Counselor, she draws on decades of senior-level experience in government and international affairs to serve clients, with a focus on Europe and Eurasia.

“We are thrilled that Toria is back,” said Jim O’Brien, ASG Vice Chair and Europe practice lead. “She has been at the top of her class in everything she’s done. We have seen companies benefit from her experience and network in Europe and around the world. Europe is preparing new pushes on manufacturing, trade, and digital policy, and Toria is one of the best guides there is.”

Victoria Nuland served as U.S. Assistant Secretary of State for European and Eurasian Affairs from 2013-2017, where she managed diplomatic relations with 50 countries, as well as with NATO, the European Union, and the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe. Previously, she served as State Department Spokesperson, Special Envoy for Conventional Armed Forces in Europe, and as United States Permanent Representative to NATO from 2005-2008. Most recently, she was CEO of the Center for a New American Security. She also served as ASG Senior Counselor from 2017-2018.

ASG’s Europe practice includes senior experts on-the-ground across Europe, including in Berlin, Brussels, Istanbul, London, Lisbon, Moscow, Madrid, Stockholm, Warsaw, and Washington, DC.

Albright Stonebridge Group (ASG) is the premier global strategy and commercial diplomacy firm. We help clients understand and successfully navigate the intersection of public, private, and social sectors in international markets. ASG’s worldwide team has served clients in more than 120 countries. To learn more, visit albrightstonebridge.com.

###